TO START SOON

Grayling To Have Regular Air Flights To Detroit, Other Cities

Pictured above is the Piper Apache, a twin engine, five passenger plane, which will be used for air transportation from Grayling to Detroit and several other Michigan cities. Flights are expected to begin early in December and the start of service will be announced soon.

Expected to start within the next few weeks will be regular air flights from Grayling to Detroit, Tri-City Airport, Traverse City, Cadillac, Flint and Pontiac. The new air flights, to start on an every other day basis, will be a service of the Flying "H" Air Service, Inc., whose home office is at the Iosco County Air Port at Tawas City.

The flights will be made in a brand new Piper Apache twin engine plane which individually seats five passengers as well as the pilot. The Apache, with flight speeds of over 200 miles an hour, will transfer passengers from Grayling to Detroit in one and a half hours including stops.

Pilots for the flights are commercial, instrument and multi-engine rated and licensed. The plane is an all weather craft fully rated for carrying passengers in comfort including individual FM radio at each seat.

Flights are expected to leave from Grayling McNamara Air Base on Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Sundays. The Chief Shoppens Motor Hotel will sell tickets, take reservations, confirm flights and offer free transportation to and from the air base from the hotel.

"The Flying 'H' Air Service will also offer plane rides, photographic flights and charter service to any spot in the world. They have five aircraft available. They also offer sales and service for Cessna, Lake

Local Doctor's Father Is Honored In Iowa

Dr. and Mrs. Vernon Blaha were in Whitten, Iowa, in October to attend a 15-community celebration in honor of his father, Dr. George Blaha, who has served the Hardin County area for fifty years in the capacity of family doctor. The commemorative program was held at the Whitten school grounds from 1 to 5 o'clock with potluck refreshments afterwards. The first baby delivered by Dr. Blaha in 1914 was on hand.

Dr. Blaha, 75, still averages four house calls a day, and remembers when they were the rule rather than the exception. Horse and buggy, sleigh, pony, tractor and car have been his mode of conveyance over the half century in which narrow roads have become today's modern paved and gravel highways. "I've been out when the snow was almost as high as the phone wires, when the mud was so bad on the road I'd have to drive up along the fence poles," he recalled. "We never left Whitten because this was a place where we felt free to breathe. It was pioneer country, beautiful woodland along the Iowa River; it was open prairie and growing land," Dr. Blaha said. "We've enjoyed it here. The family doctor relationship is something we would not have wanted to miss. I don't see why people want to honor me. This has been my life, my duty."

Establish Youth Hostel At Blue Lake Cottage

The weekend of November 6-8th there were 28 volunteers from the Detroit Council of the American Youth Hostels at Blue Lake. They and their families were making pre-season improvements on the cottage donated to the Detroit Council of A.Y.H. by Lucile Heavner, a long-time resident of both Blue Lake and Novi, Michigan.

This cottage is now called Blue Lake Hostel.

With the advent of snow, the Blue Lake Hostel will be filled with adults and young people who believe in the A.Y.H. ideals of enjoying the out-of-doors by "doing it yourself." This means bringing and preparing your own food and keeping the hostel clean, along with enjoying a friendly fire and singing around the delicate pink piano after a hard day of skiing.

Painting Started At G. H. S.

The painting project at the high school has been started. The students in the advanced home making class were given the privilege of picking out the colors for the paint. All ceilings are to be white and the side walls are to be white, Sahara beige or medium blue.

Byron Randolph and Vernon Gardiner are doing the work so far and are painting the remodeled bath-rooms and the cloak rooms containing the new lockers for a starter. When these are completed work will begin in the class rooms, halls and other rooms. This should prove a much needed improvement.

County Board Apportioning To be Tested By Court

County boards of supervisors throughout the state have just begun what could be a long wait to determine whether the boards are legally constituted.

A court test of county board apportionment was started in Kent County Circuit Court and has now reached the State Supreme Court. There is every indication it will be carried to the U. S. Supreme Court regardless of the state decision.

Kent Circuit Judge Fred N. Searl ruled in September that the county board in his area was illegally constituted because it failed to reflect the one-man, one-vote factor set down for State Legislatures earlier this year by the U. S. Supreme Court.

Several cases now awaiting decision in the State Supreme Court have been there six months or more. There is no indication this case is being given any preferential treatment in the decision-making process.

Opponents of Searl's ruling, led by County officials, say the population factor does not prevail where county boards are concerned because they are administrative bodies rather than legislative units, as dealt with in the U. S. Supreme Court decision.

The Kent-County case could well affect every area where there is a large city accounting for the majority of county population. In most counties of this type, the county boards now have less city members than would be provided under a strict one-man, one-vote basis.

Use of high schools year-round would accomplish little, however, if the extra time was used "merely to expedite the completion of high school education at an earlier age," said Hannah.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Lynn M. Bartlett predicts that a longer school year and extended daily hours will be an accomplished fact within 10 years and that the extra time will be put to good use.

"There is no question in my mind that in 10 years not only will the school year and the school day be significantly longer than today, but also because of the tremendous increase in knowledge and the ever-growing need for more skills and training, our schools will be open on some basis the year around, perhaps on a 10-to-15-hour daily program," he said.

Bartlett notes significantly that 25 per cent of Michigan's secondary schools have lengthened the school day since 1958 and 16 per cent of the elementary schools have already extended the school year to some degree in the same five-year period.

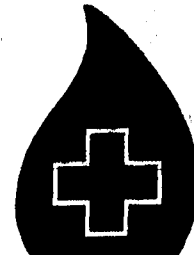

Local Seniors Attend Detroit Conference

Richard Chamberlain, idol of America's young people and "favorite doctor" to tens of millions of Americans in his role as "Dr. Kildare", championed the cause of crippled children in real life Sunday, Nov. 15th in Detroit at the first national conference in Rehabilitation Conference.

Held at Cobo Hall in Detroit's Civic Center, the Conference was a highlight of the annual convention of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults Nov. 15th, 16th and 17th. The local society sent four seniors from Grayling high school who are interested in rehabilitation work to attend this Conference, Janet LaGrow, Fay Roberson, Carolyn Galloway, and Sally Gould. The purpose of this conference was to acquaint the students with the various fields open in rehabilitation work hoping more will choose this as a career and also encourage others to do so. This is one field that has lots of opportunities but not near enough participating. The students will be hearing more on the Conference from the four girls who took part and you are urged to ask them questions and to enter this field.

The local Society is also sponsoring the "Shoot a Buck" for crippled children campaign in conjunction with the Michigan Society for Crippled Children. The American Legion and each of the local bars are cooperating 100% in this campaign. We want to extend our heartfelt appreciation to the owners and those working in the bars during hunting season for all this additional work when you are already so busy. Every bar in the County is cooperating.

PROTECTION PROBLEM
It was evident during the recent campaign that security measures were tightened considerably in the many public appearances of President Johnson around the country.

The same was not true in Michigan, where Gov. George Romney has virtually ignored any attempts to keep State Police aides close to him in all public gatherings.

Three State Police men are permanently assigned to the Governor of Michigan on basically a 24-hour guard. Usually only one, but on infrequent occasions two are with him when he attends public functions.

A sharp contrast in acceptance of police protection was noted between Romney and his predecessor, John B. Swainson.

Swainson, because of a war injury required him to wear artificial legs, was glad to have his State Police aide and local officers near him constantly to clear his path.

In contrast, Romney is prone to wander into the thick of crowds where it is virtually impossible for one person to stay by his side.

Should a serious threat to Michigan's chief executive arise, it is presumed future governors would be required to accept close security protection—in much the same manner as the President of the United States.

Area Man Enlists In The U. S. Coast Guard

Arnold Thomas Stancil, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Stancil of Lake Margrethe enlisted in the U. S. Coast Guard the 27th of August in Detroit, Michigan, and was immediately transferred to the Coast Guard receiving center at Cape May, New Jersey where he will undergo 12 weeks of training, after which he will be assigned to an advanced training school, a ship or a station.

Arnie started his application for the Coast Guard at the Sub Recruiting in Grand Rapids.

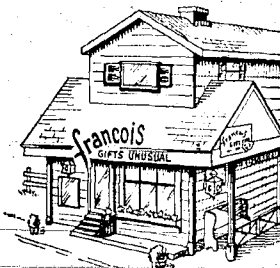

Applications are being taken at either Grand Rapids or Detroit for the Coast Guard, and more men like Arnold Stancil are needed.

Electric Heating IS BIG SUCCESS IN MUSKEGON'S FIRST ALL-ELECTRIC APARTMENTS

Mr. RICHARD GREENWALD, developer of the new ALL-ELECTRIC Mona Shores Apartments in Muskegon, Michigan

...IS IMPRESSED WITH ELECTRIC HEATING

Mr. Greenwald says: "The folks at Mona Shores told me there's nothing like total-electric living for comfort, convenience and cleanliness. They're delighted with the efficiency of their all-electric kitchen. They're impressed with the quiet operation, even warmth, and unique flexibility of room-by-room temperature control of Electric Heating. Even the maintenance man at Mona Shores Apartments is finding his work easier and more pleasant because of less cleaning, no furnace-tending or fuel ordering. When I consider all the cost factors, including upkeep and depreciation, the advantages of total-electric living featuring Electric Heat, is worth far more than it costs."

Now's the time to install ELECTRIC HEATING... Enjoy next winter more!

Momentous Events...

In terms of time, history sometimes concentrates momentous events. That happened when, within a matter of hours, Nikita Khrushchev was banished from office after some 10 years of apparently unassailable power. Britain's Conservative government which had ruled for 13 years was defeated by Labor, and the Red Chinese detonated their first nuclear explosion.

The fall of Khrushchev came as a total surprise to the West. And it will be a long time before all the elements and forces which had a part in it are known and understood. First reports indicated that the Premier had voluntarily stepped down, for reasons of age and ill health. Later information belied this. It became clear that he had been dismissed in total disgrace on charges of incompetence, bad judgement, administrative failures, nepotism, and other high crimes and misdemeanors. His chief aides went into oblivion with him.

The great question—and no one expects an early answer to this—is what policies the new Soviet government will follow. Khrushchev, for all of his occasional violent words, had followed a line of moderation as that is understood in Moscow. Western authorities, for the most part, say that they expect his successors to pursue the same line, in principle if not in detail. Others are pessimistic. They fear a more aggressive Soviet policy, designed to shore up the defections within the communist bloc. It will be a time of uneasy waiting.

Labor's victory in Britain came as no surprise—the polls had indicated it for the most part, though they forecast a narrow margin of victory. It was narrow indeed—a four-vote majority in a 630-member House of Commons. This is hardly workable—defections, absences, illnesses, deaths, could eliminate it overnight. There is every chance that a new election will take place in the comparatively near future—under the English system, one must be called if the party is unable to produce a majority vote on a major issue. The belief is that the new prime minister, Harold Wilson, may have to go slow on his program of socialization of major enterprise—a program which was halted, and to an extent reversed, by the Conservatives. He is committed to a nuclear policy which is basically opposed to that of this country. He is pledged to abandon British development of a nuclear deterrent, and, with that, he is against the U. S. wanted nuclear fleet, manned and supported by a mix of Western powers. How far he will go in this, or be able to go in the light of his tiny Commons majority, is one more of the looming questions.

China's nuclear accomplishment had long been expected and feared. According to the experts, her first bomb was very small by U. S. - Soviet standards, and she has no delivery system. But she is on her way and the world can expect her to exert every effort to become a first-class nuclear power. This will necessitate long and grave second thoughts on the part of the West and, very probably, revisions of high policy. China is the most warlike of all powers, and her human resources are almost infinite. The threat she may be able to offer the world in coming years is grave indeed.

The President, in his weekend talk discussing these events, said that the United States must maintain commanding strength even as it intensifies its efforts to maintain peace. That will be a major goal of any administration for a long time to come.

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVANCE OF 23 YEARS AGO

November 20, 1941

Some of our local nimrods got their deer early the first day of the season—Saturday. Just who may have been the first Graylingite to fill his license isn't certain. Max Laage reported he got a fine buck at 8:30 a.m. Stanley Lazarewicz got his at 9:00 a.m. Earl Broadbent was one of the early ones. Roy Trudgeon lost a bet when he wagered he would have his by 10:00 a.m., but missed it by ten minutes. Miss Margaret Cassidy of Lansing also cashed her license early. After seven years of deer hunting, Miss Cassidy said, she finally got her first buck. Carl Hanson, hunting near the electric power dam, got his buck early the first day. Tony Trudeau and William Simpson each got a buck Sunday. Jack Redhead, who just moved with his family to Lakewood, Ohio, couldn't remain away and had to come back for his deer hunt. Mr. Stead of Cleveland came with him and each got his buck the first day of the season. Kenneth Peterson shot a seven-point Saturday morning. Walt Smyth of Detroit, visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Smyth, got an eight-point Saturday morning. Seeley Wakeley, Jr., age 16, got a nice buck the first day and says he "beat his dad this year." Allen Stevenson, 15, is thrilled over his first buck. He got it the first day. Jerry LaMotte filled his license the first day. Amos Hunter, Roy Wolcott, DeVeré Wolcott, Roy Smith, Leo Lovely, Perry Akers, Reggie Sheehy, Charles Glerke, William Kraage and George Hilton were also lucky hunters.

Grayling State liquor store reported $3,756 net taken in at the store Friday, the day before opening of the deer season. And nearly a like amount Saturday.

Bill McEvers says we are having an Indian summer. And Bill says it will last a month. His prognostication is now on record.

Alvin and Emory Confer of Flint spent the weekend here visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dreher of Detroit are hunting guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Akers.

Mrs. Charles Bonham of Pontiac is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jorgenson for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Del Greene of Saginaw were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Holger Hanson. The ladies are sisters.

Wayne Nellist of Detroit was here for the opening of the deer season and Mrs. Nellist and son Verne joined him Wednesday and will spend the remainder of the week with his parents. Attorney and Mrs. Merle Nellist. Mr. Cleo Kimball of Detroit was a weekend guest.

William Schreiber of Dearborn is a guest of his nephew, York Edmonds, here for the deer hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Orr of Muskegon were guests of Mrs. James Reynolds, Sr., Sunday, here for deer hunting.

Robert Tinker is returning Thursday to Quantico, Virginia, where he is stationed with the U. S. Marines. He has been home on a twelve-day furlough visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tinker. He was recently transferred from Parris Island to Quantico.

Saturday night Jack Armstrong's barn near Frederic burned to the ground and between 20 and 30 tons of hay that was in the barn burned. All the livestock was gotten out but nothing else was saved. The cause of the fire is not known.

John Armstrong is busy these days building a new barn to replace the one destroyed by fire Saturday.

Little Carol Lodge, 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lodge who drank some kerosene, is home from the hospital, much improved.

John Rowell drove up from Lansing to visit his mother, Mrs. Harry Horton and to hunt. He was lucky enough to get a 9-point buck. The Nels Corwin cottage near Wakeley bridge on the AuSable river, was sold to Roy A. Pearsall of Bay City last week.

Clarence Johnson, vice president of Grayling Winter Sports, Inc., just received a number of enlarged photographs of winter park scenes. They are 60 x 40 inches in size. Several of these are now on display in Grayling store windows. Later they will be displayed in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Brad Jarmin left Sunday for San Francisco, Calif., where they plan to take up their residence, the former having secured a clerical position there. Brad resigned his position as bookkeeper for the National Log Construction Company in whose employ he had been for the past five years. They are motoring through and expect to stop at several places of interest enroute.

The conveyor chain for use to haul toboggans up the hill at the winter sports park has arrived. It is 3,100 feet in length and weighs 12½ tons. The links are long and each is supported by a wheel upon which the chain rides. Steel caging that will be used in the concrete conveyor through hasn't arrived as yet and it is doubtful if it will get here in time this season. Priority orders are holding up some of this needed equipment.

46 YEARS AGO —

November 21, 1918

Miss Agnes Gendron spent the latter part of last week at Frederic, visiting Miss Zelma DeValk.

Ben Langsberg is spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Langsberg. During the past summer he has been working in a munition factory in Detroit.

Mrs. Eno K. Milnes entertained a party of young ladies in honor of Miss Vivian Bromwell last Thursday evening. All spent an enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Jesse Guy of Sunfield, Michigan, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Claude Gilson, and husband, for a week or so.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauman and daughter Grace, together with Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Graham of Detroit, left Monday for New York. Mr. Graham has been appointed a secretary by the K. of Cs for overseas duties.

Mrs. Anna Hanson is visiting relatives in Johannesburg.

B. Peter Johnson lost a valuable team of horses in the fire that destroyed the Fisher barn at Frederic the forepart of the week.

Mrs. Frank Griffin of the South Side suffered a painful accident last Thursday while polishing a stove. Thinking the fire was entirely out she applied some of the blackening, but no sooner had she done so when the liquid exploded and caught on the can of polish which she held in her left hand. She threw the burning can against the wall and this too took fire burning the wall and ceiling before she could get it extinguished. Mrs. Griffin's left hand and arm were very badly burned.

Miss Leona Skinner gave a party at her home last Friday evening, at which about 25 of her friends were present.

Mrs. Harry Simpson, who has been ill with influenza for the past ten days, is recovering nicely. Mrs. Simpson willingly volunteered her services during the influenza siege, to care in nursing those stricken with the disease, and in doing so contracted it herself.

Mrs. Peter LaRue returned to her home in Bay City Friday after a few days spent with her daughter Mrs. Glen Owen.

William Phelps, claiming to be a citizen of Port Huron, was arrested here by Marshal Mike Bren-

Old Pat, the Swing Horse

By Floyd Davis

(I'm sure people have seen horses in the cities, pulling milk wagons in days gone by. The following continued articles are about Pat and the milkman that was his companion on these adventures. The place was Flint, Michigan, and the time was in the thirties.)

You see Pat was an unusual horse in a way, as he was the swingman's horse and had the job of pulling a different route six nights each week while the regular routeman had a night off, and Pat knew all the stops and where the milkman was supposed to set the milk at each house, perhaps better than the delivery man himself.

Before we start on some of these adventures this pair had together, I think it would be nice for you to have a little description of Pat and some of his finer qualities.

He was a tall horse standing about sixteen hands high (five ft. four in.) at the withers, and could not be called a handsome steed. He had a thick unruly mane, eyes that were too small for his size head and somewhat beady when he was planning some kind of trick to pull, and also set to close together to leave room for the brains that he should have had. His big, round, corn-cob nose, and stubbornness to any veteran horseman and his pin ears were always in one of three positions, forward, in the upright position or laid back against his head, his back was too closely coupled for his height giving him a potbelly look from the side. He did however have a beautiful coat, roan in color and very thick. He had lovely hoofs that would have made him an outstanding contestant in a snow shoe race as they were about that size, but Pat loved people, in fact he would stee the hands so well he would try to squeeze them against the side of the stall whenever they tried to harness him. He loved the farrier too. He always tried to caress him in the rear section with one of his hind feet when he was being shod.

He was a gaited horse, having three gaits walk, trot, (that was more of a plod), and his best gait was a mad gallop back toward the Dairy Barn with his nose straight forward, bit clenched firmly between his teeth, and sparks flying from his big iron shoes as they hit the pavement.

This "must" have been his finest gait the way people would stare at him from their porches or as they ran for the sidewalk when crossing the street in front of him, and even cars pulled over to the curb and stopped to see Pat perform in his mad gallop, or perhaps it was for their own protection.

Anyway this will give you some idea of Pat's better qualities, and the way he looked.
(The next article will tell of an adventure on north Saginaw St. on a cold winter night, and a barefoot man.)

William Milliken, The New Lieutenant Governor

By Sandy Rathbun

Election day brought a new look to the legislative branch of Michigan's government.

The president of the senate is Republican Lt. Gov. elect William G. Milliken of Traverse City. That's new!

The Democrats control the senate, 23 to 15. That's new!

But putting them together, the situation is much the same as it has been for the past 10 years. Not once in that time has the majority of the senate and the president of the senate been members of the same party.

Milliken will have much in common with his Democratic predecessors T. John Lesinski, John B. Swainson and Philip A. Hart, when he presides over the senate for the first time on January 13, 1965.

Milliken, elected to the Senate in 1960 and re-elected in 1962, ran as a part of the Romney team this past election.

Under the new constitution which requires the governor and the lieutenant governor to run for election as a team, Milliken and Romney bucked the Democratic landslide of November 3.

Milliken valued to the second highest office in the state after serving only two terms in the Senate. While there, he was elected floor leader in January of 1963. He served on the Senate Affairs Committee and the Senate Taxation Committee and was chairman of the Senate Committee on Education.

He was a member of the Michigan Waterways Commission from 1947 to 1955 appointed by Gov. Kim Sigler.

Milliken, president of J. W. Milliken Department Store in Traverse City, has been the chairman of the Grand Traverse County Republican Committee for the past six years.

He is a third generation Michigan State Senator. His grandfather, the late J. W. Milliken, founder of the department store in Traverse City was a senator from 1901 to 1903. His father, the late James T. Milliken, represented the same area for five terms some 20 years ago.

Milliken, 42, has been president of the Traverse City Chamber of Commerce, Scenic Trails Council and a Boy Scout Council.

He was a trustee of Northwestern Michigan College, Traverse City, and is presently on the Board of Directors of Greater Michigan, Inc. Milliken, a graduate of Yale University, is married to the former Helen Wallbank of Denver, Colo. They have two children, Elaine, 16, and Bill, Jr., 13.

Bits O' Talk

Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Puffer of Sharon were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Doroh Sunday evening.

Glen Dingman of Grayling received word of the death of his brother-in-law, Julius Rose of Clio. Death occurred Monday morning and funeral services were to be held Thursday afternoon.

Bill and Diane Hall of Grand Rapids spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hall. Bill took home a nice buck.

Mr. and Mrs. David Smith and sons John and David Jr. of North Branch are at their home, 316 R. R. Reserve. Their son Wesley, 12, is visiting in Lansing and deer hunting. Sunday guests were Wesley and John Sammons of Lansing, who are staying at their cabin north of Rose City, on a part of the farm where Laura and her brother Wesley were born. Monday the Smiths' son-in-law Fred Ray and brother-in-law Roy Worden and nephew Clifford Carpenter and Bruce Worden came for hunting near the Worden cabin east of Frederic.

Moose Lodge Activities

Sunday our own Degree Team enrolled one of the largest groups that has ever been enrolled into this lodge.

We also had some surprises and a lot of fun, when members of the Royal Oak Police Dept., who were enrolled Sunday, put handcuffs on Elmer Neal, who was their sponsor. They also had Gov. Chuck Stoddard and Jr. Gov. John Galoway handcuffed. The officers and members welcome our twenty eight new members.

This Saturday night is St. Jude's night at the club. This is the night when all special proceeds go to A.L.S.C., for the help of crippled children.

This Friday is meeting night, and will be our first social night for this year. Any special rules that will govern social nights for this year will be announced at the meeting.

We have gone over our second membership quota. We reached it last Monday, as expected, and have another good start on our third quota already.

Several members have gotten their buck. We will try to have a list of the lucky hunters next week.

We still need some more payers of yearly dues, to qualify for a Lifetime membership.

Do you have blood in the Moose Bank? You may be the one that will need it!

How secure is your family? Better check your dues receipts and make sure.

The list of prizes from the Michigan Moose Association will be out real soon, and the prizes are bigger and better than ever before. Also there are more of them. It will be on a "first come, first serve" basis.

Thanks!

The magnificent 1965 Cadillac is once again in production.
Our thanks to those unprecedented numbers of people who have already placed their orders. Their patience will soon be rewarded.

All eleven models of the great 1965 Cadillac are once again coming off the production line—and into show-rooms. We regret that production had to be delayed more than a month following the announcement of this great new car. For we know the inconvenience that it caused the thousands of devoted Cadillac admirers who have placed their orders. But patience is seldom as richly rewarded as it will be for those who take title to this magnificent automobile—easily the most exciting Cadillac in history. Its new beauty and luxurious interiors surpass even traditional Cadillac standards. Its many personal options have made it the most desired automobile of all time. And its new handling ease must be experienced to be believed. See and drive this great car soon.

So new! So right! So obviously Cadillac
